

how do licensure exams stack up?

Only NCBTMB gives you more – from entry level license through national certification... with one exam.

State license only

Other licensure exams

NCBTMB's licensure through certification exam program

National certification

Highest national standard in the massage field

Acceptance by healthcare community

Establishes practitioners as healthcare providers on par with other professionals requiring certification

Legitimization of the field

Creates national standard of professionalism that is widely recognized and respected

Advanced and specialty credentials

NCBTMB is currently developing an advanced credential, as well as specialty certifications

Personal and professional growth

Volunteer and leadership opportunities to better yourself and your career

Continuing education resource

Convenient online tool connects you with trusted NCBTMB Approved Providers of continuing education

Increased employment opportunities

Employers want practitioners who have the education, training and ethics to practice safely and competently

Customer service and support

Comprehensive website for information and support, as well as customer service representatives available via phone and email

Career support

National online Find a Practitioner resource so potential clients can locate you

Code of Ethics

Establishes public trust and confidence, enhances reputation of profession and safeguards clients

Standards of Practice

Ensure certificants are aware of and committed to professional conduct and practice

State license through NCBTMB exams

NCBTMB exams used in 33 states as part of the licensure process

For more information about NCBTMB's licensure exam and certification program, ask your school administrator or program director. You can also call NCBTMB at 1-800-296-0664 or visit www.ncbtmb.org.

NCBTMB

National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork®

1901 South Meyers Road
Suite 240
Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181-5243
www.ncbtmb.org
1-800-296-0664